

Executive Cup 2011 Silent Auction

What is the Executive Cup?

The Executive Cup is the annual fundraising event for the Men's and Women's Golf programs at the University of North Carolina. Proceeds benefit the operating budgets of the golf teams providing them with the support needed to represent the University of North Carolina at the highest level of collegiate golf. Events begin with a golf tournament on Finley Golf Course and then continue with a banquet and silent auction in the evening. This year's event will be on Saturday, November 12th.

What sort of items are in the auction?

Golf and Carolina items are the most popular, but the auction always contains a wide variety of items such as vacations, rounds of golf, tickets to games and events, UNC sports memorabilia, golf themed items, jewelry, clothing, baby items, wine, and gift certificates for restaurants, spa treatments, and retail stores. Any item of value is welcome and your contribution to the Executive Cup Silent Auction may be tax deductible.
